

Stylish retreats for inspiring timeouts

Lifestylehotels™ is an internationally operating company based in Graz. As one of the pioneers of the lifestyle-oriented hotel industry, we have been successfully active in the market for more than 20 years. The demand for aesthetics and quality is central to our vision of a modern hotel industry and it is inextricably linked to our commitment to sustainability and mindfulness. Farm-to-table concepts, the support of local artists, a particularly resource-conserving operation of the hotel, or the meditative experience of nature are just a few examples of the innovations of our hoteliers that we support with our work.
